Superintendent's Message

Barbara A. Renzoni

Members of the Class of 2009, I ask you to bear in mind the mission of this school as you go forth into this uncertain national economy. That mission is three-fold: to prepare our students for productive employment and, to that end, we at Tri-County RVTHS respect the dignity of work; to provide a strong educational foundation necessary for college entrance and, to that end, we at Tri-County RVTHS embrace our high academic standards; and to develop creative, responsible American citizens.

Regarding employment and the dignity of work, the Class of 2009 is graduating in a time of universal financial hardship and scarce employment opportunities. This is an especially frightening situation for those who will go directly into the workforce and it is to those members of the Class I now direct my remarks.

It is true that jobs are tight and you may even have to settle for something less than anticipated. Its okay. There have been recessions and depressions throughout our countrys history. One always hears about the Great Depression of the 1930s but there were others. Do not give up!

In fact, 37% of you intend to go directly to work; of that number, 28 have already secured jobs in their program majors. Why have they been successful and why am I so confident the rest of you will be? Because Tri-County teachers gave you a gift. They taught you how to work and they taught you to value work and to take pride in your accomplishments. That is an advantage you have over those who did not attend a vocational school. You have skills in your respective vocational area, you know you need to show up on time, you know how to solve problems, you know how to work alone, you know how to work as part of a team, and you have good math and communication abilities. You have all you need to succeed!

Regarding a strong educational foundation and high academic standards, your teachers have made you work. You could not coast here at Tri-County. You had to do what was expected of you. I dare say no school in the district requires such a stringent senior project, let alone mandating successful completion of it as a graduation requirement. But every one of you did it. Just as every one of you passed MCAS. You all have a solid high school education. Proof of this is evidenced by the fact that, for the first time ever, over 60% (61.3 to be exact) of the Class of 2009 will be continuing their education. Outstanding!

This does not mean however, that these students are abandoning their vocational experience. Nineteen of them will continue their vocational training at a technical institute. Eleven will major in a health related program and four will continue as Culinary Arts majors. Eventually, all those who pursue higher education will enter the workforce and, when they do, they will bring with them the education they earned here.

Regarding the development of good citizenship, Tri-County has always taken pride in this aspect of our mission. Whether demonstrating it through our mandatory student community service projects; our school-wide Christmas support of needy children; our shop projects on public facilities throughout our district; or our commitment to the men and women in the armed services, this school has let its actions speak for themselves and, once again, our students have learned by doing.

Take these qualities with you as you leave Tri-County and put them to good use. Become the person you are meant to be and build an even better America. You are the future; and I, for one, am quite comfortable with that thought. Please keep in touch!

Principal's Message

Mark A. Wood

It is amazing to believe that your four year journey through High School has come to an end. Just four years ago you met as a class in the Auditorium for the very first time. You endured a variety of challenges along the way, both in shop and in your academic classes.

In your freshmen year, you explored a variety of shops and ultimately selected your shop and the first step to your career. For some, you stayed with your first choice, but for many you picked some new challenge. You earned third party certifications, as well as prepared your Senior Project.

In the academic classrooms you met the challenge of preparing for tests, including MCAS, in half the time of students in a traditional high school. This was not an easy task, but you did it. Your course work prepared you for a variety of options, including college, the military, or a direct trip to the workforce.

I believe there is one more major component in your education that does not fall under academics or vocational, and that is citizenship. Each of you has completed community service, and although it is a graduation requirement, you went above and beyond. As members of the school community, you participated in school-wide projects to serve others, like the annual Holiday Gift Drive or the Cradles to Crayons Project. Each of these service projects are designed to help others. You may never know how many lives you have touched through your efforts, but your participation is the essence of good citizenship. It has been said that you should always leave the place you have been, better than you found it.

My challenge to you is to take your talents and skills and do just that, work to make the world a better place. Leave it better than you found it. In closing I leave you with the words of Emily Dickenson;

If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain
If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,
Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

Advisor's Message

Ms. Desrochers & Mr. Remillard

Choose a job you love and you'll never work a day in your life.
---Chinese Proverb

As you set out to begin your life journey take comfort in the fact that you are not alone. Each member of Tri-Countys graduating class of 2009 will be embarking on a similar mission of self-actualization. When you made the decision to join the Tri-County community four years ago, it required an enormous amount of courage and strength to leave what was familiar and to set off into the unknown. Those qualities inherent within each of you will serve you well as you begin the next chapter of your lives. It will not be easy. The challenges that you will face will only grow in intensity and in number, but you are ready. Through four years of rigorous study and vocational training, you have acquired the necessary skills to overcome lives obstacles and achieve great happiness. Toward that end, Mr. Remillard and I encourage all of you to find something that you are passionate about and to make it your lives work. As the Chinese proverb said choose a job you love and you'll never work a day in your life. From experience, we know this to be true and wish the same for all of you. Mr. Remillard and I would like to extend our sincere thanks for the privilege of working with you for the past four years and to express our deepest confidence that you will all continue to mature and to grow into remarkable individuals.

Ms. Desrochers

Class Officers' Message

Jane Annis, Stephanie Harrop, Susie Alico, Lucas Duffey

Life is what you make it!

Congratulations class of 2009! We did it. It seems like just yesterday that we were the new kids of the school, walking in those front doors not knowing what to expect. But we all got over that feeling of being alone, and learned to come together as a class. We came together early on too; junior year we beat the senior class to win the Cougar Cup and became the only class to win it two years in a row. What an great accomplishment! It shows the dedication and spirit that our class has portrayed and has made us very proud to be called your class officers. It has been a pleasure getting to know each and every one of you, and we know our class spirit is so strong that it will live on for years to come. Now we leave you with this thought: to live life to the fullest and never give up, because life is what you make it so live with no regrets. Thanks again to all of you for making these years so memorable.

High school is filled with experiences that shape who we are as people. I will never forget what I have been through good and bad. What stood out the most to me was my experimenting with hair color and putting wands in my hair. Saturday Nights and meeting interesting people. The crazy bus rides and close friends I've met in high school will always stick with me.

Katelyn Araujo
Kate, Coujo, EZ, Karen, Cookie Monster
Summer academy with Ashly, Joey, and Jill. "I sound like a guy going through puberty!" Freshman year, exploratory and history class. Those times at Brandon's playing football with Edwin and the gang. Gym class with Mr. King. Sophomore year, going to Taco Bell like everyday with the football team and volleyball MVP. Junior Year, Homecoming, Prom, and all those crazy times with Tina. Hanging with the underclassmen. Dance team with Alyssia. Senior year, Those times with idk my bff Jill. Pickles! The Ralph and Joseph show. C-dog (Mr. Chauvin). Mr. Hitchborn making fun of my height saying I need a high chair. Thiago thinking I was Edwins mom. Prom 09! Can't wait to graduate and more memories to come.

Taelyn Aubrey
I remember having hair color, wearing outrageous outfits, "Saturday Nights", Community Service, my life changing for the better, and learning what I'm passionate about. In high school, I met lifelong friends and an amazing boyfriend.

Cory Barry

Singing Coheed at the top of our lungs and making "The Coffee House Song" known through-out TC. SKHS + Strawdogs "We'll never have to listen to anyone about anything cause it's all been done and it's all been said." you don't need to be famous to leave a mark RIP Taylor Lee... oh Mike, Anthony and Joe 1UP!

Ben Bertrand
B Bert
I've had so many memories, especially in shop, from the petty fights to crazy pranks. The most memorable moment has definitely got to be when I had just finished painting my 1997 Suzuki Katana 600 and couldnt be any more excited! Soon to my disappointment I had found out that Timmy the janitor had hit it with his truck, but I fixed it up and all is well with tons of new parts thanks to the generous insurance company. I met my amazing girlfriend just before sophomore year and have had memories and are looking forward to many more. Peace.

Nathan Bessette
I remember carpentry freshman year only having little background in the trade. I remember looking up to the seniors thinking " I can't picture myself learning all that they know about construction". Now I'm at the end of high school and I find myself able to answer any question I had about carpentry freshman year. It's amazing how fast I learned my trade and how successful I could be if I use it to my advantage. Coming to Tri-County was one of the best stepping stones to the future I have ahead.

William Bishop
Bill, Billy
SkillsUSA Nationals, most exciting week ever I spent it with new friends and some awesome teachers. Ms. Lane that was not a turtle.

James Blase
Jibbs B
Just hangin out...The Mistlers...Tony C's...Anywhere else.

Dennis Bowley
Big D, Bowley
Remembering the first day of soccer freshman year. Meeting new friends and keeping the old ones. The most thing I remember about high school is the sports, Soccer, Wrestling, and Lacrosse. The defining moment was when I got a concussion at the State Sectional Wrestling Tournament. I had gotten 5th place for wrestling 10 seconds, the only thing was I couldn't remember anything afterwards. Good times in shop.

Aaron Boyden
Doing a job at the DPW in Walpole, Wiring the shed at T.C, driving to school, times in shop, Edwin's House.

Ashly Bottoms
Meg, Alb, Boeetumtum
Best friends forever HC, SkillsUSA '08, shop teachers, that time in shop, soccer varsity Mayflower champs :] math team, singing burning up; all my projects to do with Jonas Brothers, FacMan '09; CB, NR, LF, MP, MD, AH, TC, SA, EW, JS, MP, LP.

Jill Bridges
IDK my bff Jill,
My shop may have bad times but I love them to death, getting embarrassed with Alyssia, Ralph & Joseph show, Bandroom, Walpole kids, Alyssia giving my number to the guy at Aunt Annie's, locking Ally in a dog cage, Meeting new friends, Going to the mall on Friday nights, Chillin with my work friends, Having my biffle Kristen everywhere I go, and getting out of Tri-County. Staying out til 5 am then having work at 7am. Loving every minute of it! Everyone telling me that I am a mess, and crazy, coming out with some random stuff. But at the end of the day you go to the ping pong table and get the job done!

The many accidents in shop like pumping air into the school's water main. Flooding the shop with broken water heaters. Break time in the Plumbing shop, always a good time. Earning the title as most hated shop by all teachers.

Michael Calma
Camma
Spending the week before Christmas celebrating with Vinny Levine and all of the Plumbing shop.

Mike Cavanaugh
Going to Boston. Winning two league champs in Wrestling. Setting school record for most goals in Lacrosse. Me and Joe's first experience at UMass Amherst, gotta remember what happened to Rossi our roomate. Beating down Mr. Ronan on the sidelines he's not so tuff now. Our crazy times we had in shop. Having Bachad giving out so many pink slips, he ran out. The whole plumbing shop wont be forgot because of Das Mug!

My best moment during senior year would have to be the senior week and pep rallies. This is a time where we got the most freedom in Tri-High. You could see everyone's personality and traits and how weird some people actually are. At the end of the week our class would battle it out to see who was the best class. And who got chosen? It was always our class. And thats a thing to keep in our mind. That we were always successful.

Matt DiIorio
Eating bread with Rando in English class. Marchand's Techno Vampire. Getting kicked out of McDonald's after ice skating on Saturday nights.

Andrew Dion
Andy, Andre', AD
I can remember the first day I walked into shop and I saw who was in my class. My first day in academics during Freshman Year. My first class was Reading Comprehension. All the Awards Night ceremonies and receiving the awards for my accomplishments such as perfect attendance, and three quarter honor roll. Going to PAWS and talking about different issues concerning students and teachers. Learning something new everyday. All the challenges and objectives I had to overcome. Taking the MCAS test during my Sophomore year. The End-Of-The-Year senior activities such as the prom and senior trip. Playing speedball in gym class. The Pep rallies.

Brendan Donoghue

I Tuned In, Got Turned On, And in 4 Years, I didn't drop out.

Ali White
Shop Lunches with Kayla, Honey, Jackie, Diyanna. Being an MVP Bench Warmer with Sade, meeting at our locker, Bob Marley Stickers, My high school sweetheart, going to the beach, Dinner with Kayla, Being late, Walpole, Catering with Alex, Ozzy, getting lost and nights that never ended.

Emily Woodhams
Em, Emshwee, LC
Crazy shop fun with everyone. Basketball and soccer all four years and having a great coach, Mr. Forbes. Mrs. Jones math class junior and senior year. "Disturbia." New Years with Cam, Sam and Sierra. Jane Annis weird right! Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Thompson, senior project with Adriana Caselotti. Olga and Gina for life. Lunch with the girls, Garceau saying "Mr. Hickey I gotta go pee!" Prom, shop field trips, Dori, my sophomores, Pearl, Annie, Kenzie, Nate, Jill, Shannon, Sam, Kate, Alyssia, Ali, and Emily W.

Matthew Woods
Woods
Building a working ice hockey table and having a tournament in shop. No matter what we were doing, we are always having fun.

Scott Yates
When I came to Tri-County I had a big interest in music shop, so I decided to be a part of the after school music club. After being a part of the music club, I decided to play the drums. Soon after I started a band with Dan Findly and Will Anderson called Endless Echo. Our music teachers Mr. Curran & Mr. LaPlante had helped us out so much by recording our first demo CD right here in Tri-County. Both Mr. Curran & Mr. LaPlante have made my Tri-County experience very memorable, and I can't thank them enough.

More Spirit!

Jen Harlow

Jenny,

I want to express how truly proud I am of you. It seems like yesterday I was brushing your hair into a ponytail whisking you off to kindergarden. Now here you are a mature beautiful and successful young women who is ready for another challenge in her life. I've watched you strategize your plan to succeed during your high school years. Your determination to accomplish your goals has not gone unnoticed. I admire you for your aggressiveness. I know that you will be successful in your college career and throughout the rest of your adult life. I love you and I'm so proud of you! Please don't forget that I'm always here for you!
